

TRADING SUMMARY FOR THE WEEK ENDED 8TH JANUARY 2010

The first trading week of the year showed signs of improving trading patterns over the coming weeks. Despite a decline in the share prices of the trading stocks, the Exchange had a volume of 5,043 shares exchanging hands garnering $18,779 in consideration.

The overall capitalisation of the market fell 0.6% to close the week at $896,185,357. Reduction in share price of the manufacturer of alcoholic beverages, Fosters Group Pacific Limited (FGP) by 3.2% led to the drop in market capitalisation. The drop in the market capitalisation can further be attributed to the fall in the share prices of the supermarket chain, RB Patel Group (RBG) and The Rice Company of Fiji Limited (RCF) by 1.1% and 4.1% respectively.

A total of four securities traded in 10 transactions this week.

SPSE Total Return Index (STRI)

The STRI opened the week at 1899.00 and fell 0.6% over the week to close at 1887.70. This was mainly due to falling share prices in three of the 16 listed securities.
